A Horse in Blue, Eli, A Call to Duty

Robin Leigh Stoner, Author

This is a delightful tale of a horse named Eli who just knew he was born for “adventurous hero stuff!” Follow Eli’s journey from a farm named Alanleigh to his future as a police horse in the mounted patrol. Discover the answer to the question “what’s a great big horse to do?” Robin and her husband, Bob, donated their horse Eli to the Pennsylvania State Police Mounted Patrol...this is the beginning of Eli’s life story! Dream big! Never give up!

Ages 4 to 7, ideal ages, younger ages also enjoy this book

How Do I Pray?

Meg Morgan Hays, Author

An inspirational poetry book for children, encouraging them to talk to God any time and any place using their own choice of words. Written as if the child is asking questions about how to pray. Author Meg Morgan Hays brings a genuine and heartfelt feeling about “how to pray” to her poem.

A Miracle Named Josefina, the Miniature Donkey Born to be Loved

Patricia J. Longenecker, Author

Journey with Josefina, the miniature donkey, as she first struggles for life, then slowly recovers, embracing a vibrant zest for living! Discover the loving care needed to ensure Josefina’s survival and then her antics and personality as she grows into a healthy young jennet! This is a story lovingly told by her owner, author Patty Longenecker, through stunning watercolor illustrations and warm-hearted text. Both an art book and a love story, the life journey of a jennet donkey who was born to be loved.

Louise on the Lam, A Foster Mom’s Tale of Love, Rescue and a Tail on the Loose

Sharon Cree, Author

Louise, a rescue beagle, “the most scared dog in the world”, on the Urgent list at a shelter in West Virginia, finds her way to Sharon Cree’s heart and home in Pennsylvania. Then through a freak incident, Louise runs away and goes on the lam. This is Louise’s journey...a tale of love, rescue and a tail on the loose...and the woman who would never give up on her! If you love dogs, or any animals, this story will touch your heart!

The Girl Behind the Door

Christie Miller, Author

An inspirational story for children and adults who allow fear to control their lives. Meet Sylvie, a young girl who finds the “what-ifs” of life much too scary to handle. She hides in a small room behind a door, her dreams carefully locked away in a suitcase except for a few precious moments when she lets them run free. Mysterious visitors arrive, each with their own motivations...some encourage her to step outside the door, and some encourage her to stay.

“The Girl Behind the Door” won 1st Place in the National Christian Authors Award competition, 2018. This is a remarkable achievement for a vibrant and talented author who has many years of amazing work ahead of her.

Ages 8 to 12, ideal

The Inmate Within: Prison Ministry, a Haven of Hope

Peter K. Einstein, Author

Witness the life changing effects of the Gospel message on incarcerated men and women and experience what it’s like to be involved in prison ministry through the author’s eyes. Pete Einstein’s compelling journey inside penitentiary walls reminds us that spiritual principles apply to all lives. We are all in prison in some way, even if we are not behind bars in a penal institution. A powerful book, a must-read.
